

Students surveyed: 3,483

Year one: 1,990 (57.9%)

Year two: 1,422 (41.4%)

Gender

Male: 2,020 (58.3%)

Female: 1,444 (41.7%)

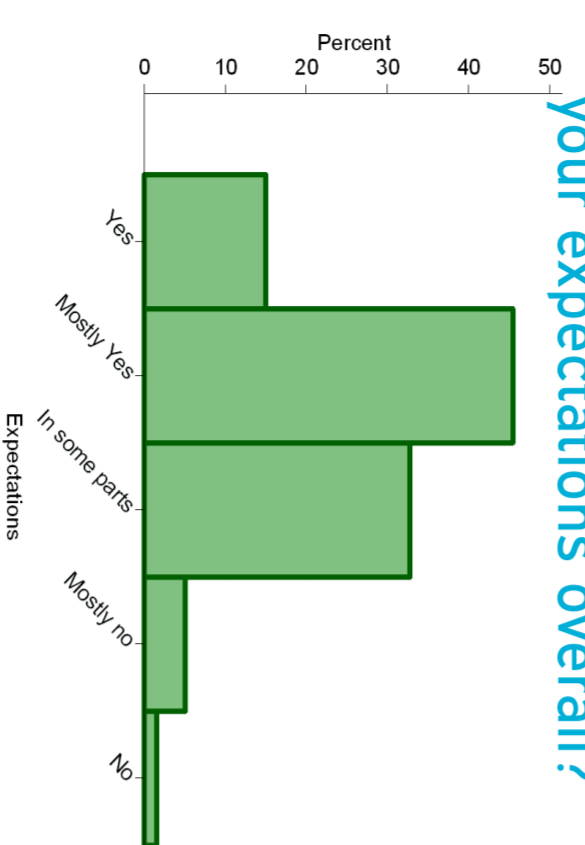

Permanent Residence

England: 52.14% Scotland: 7.895%

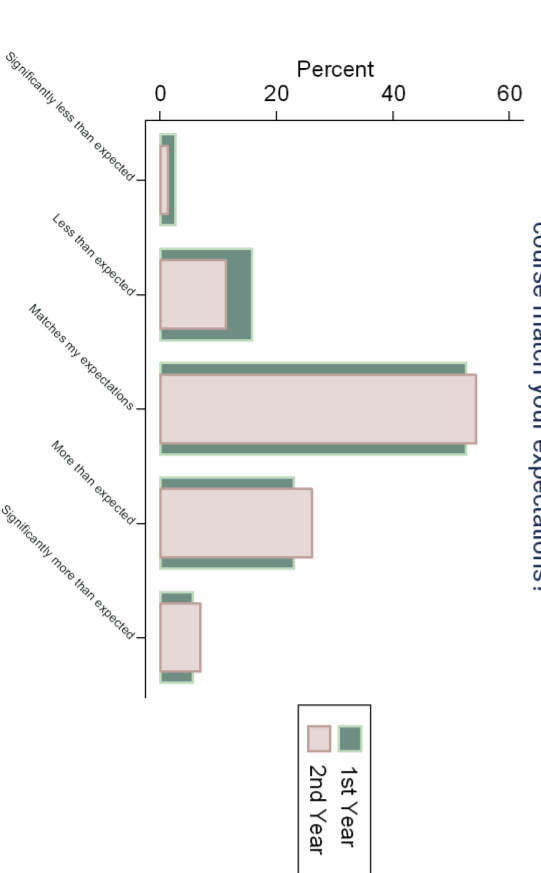

Wales: 1.272% EU (non UK): 11.36%

Other international: 27.33%

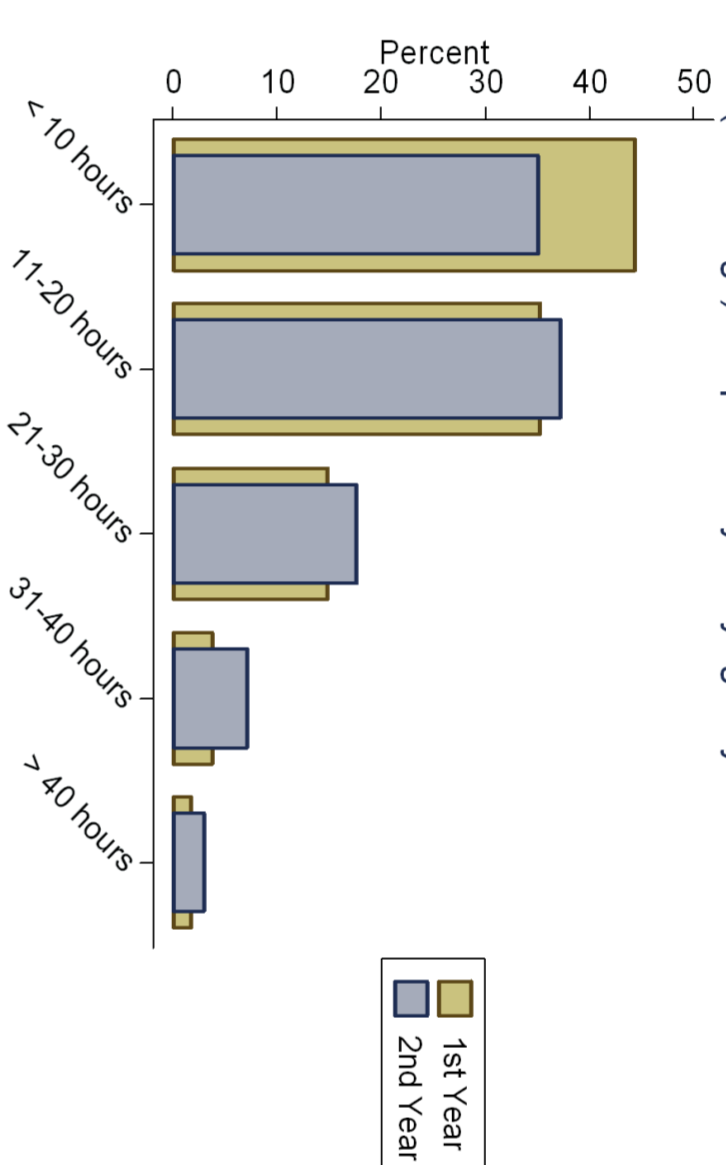

Has studying this degree course met your expectations overall?

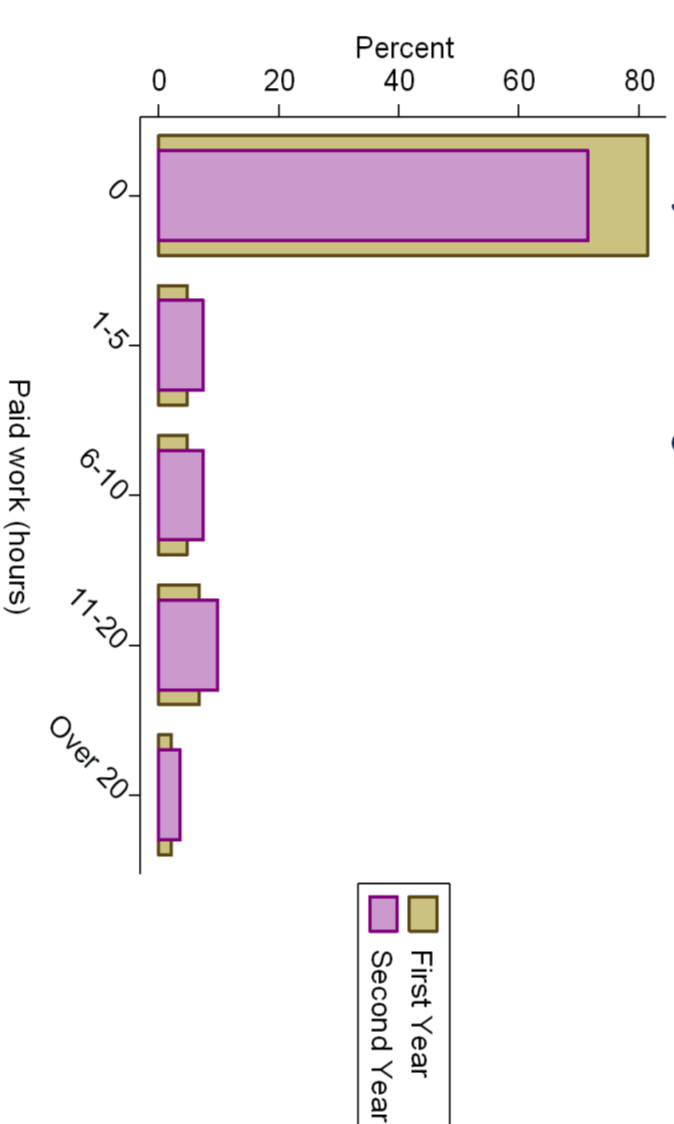

How does the work load on your course match your expectations?

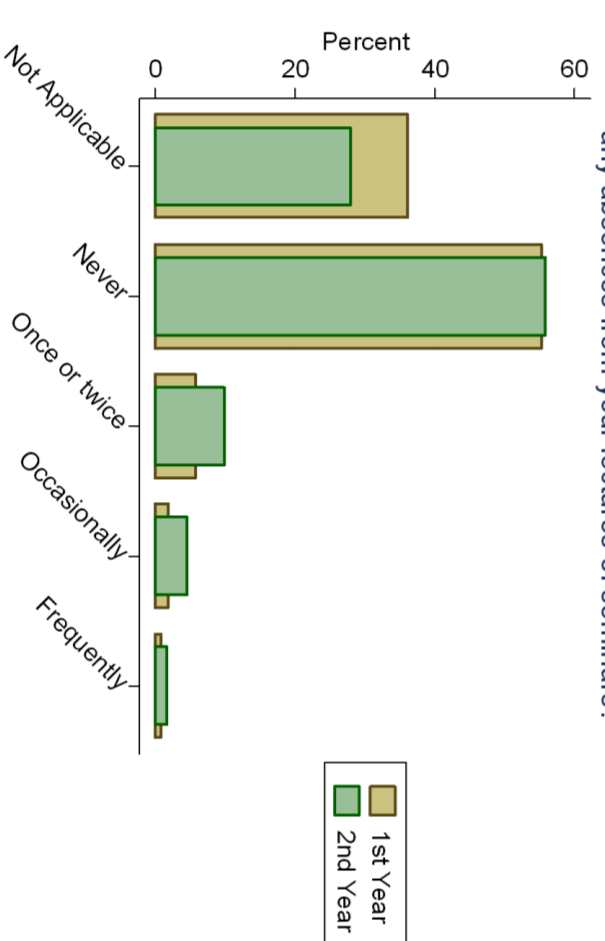

How much time do you spend each week (on average) independently studying for your course?

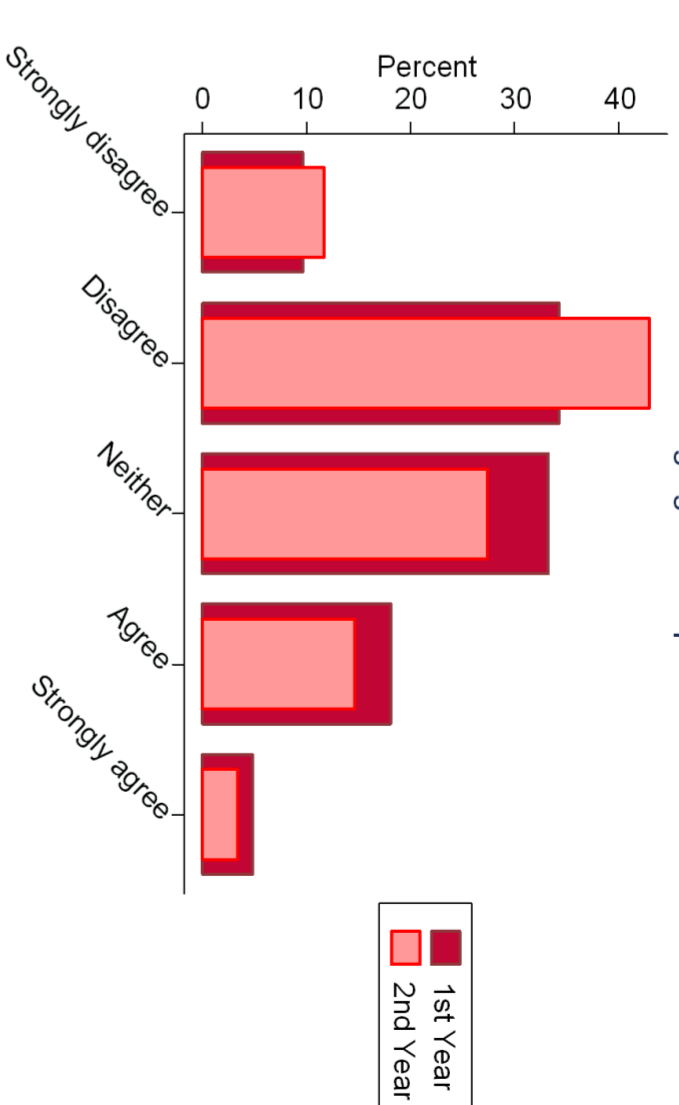

How many hours of paid employment do you do during a week of term time?

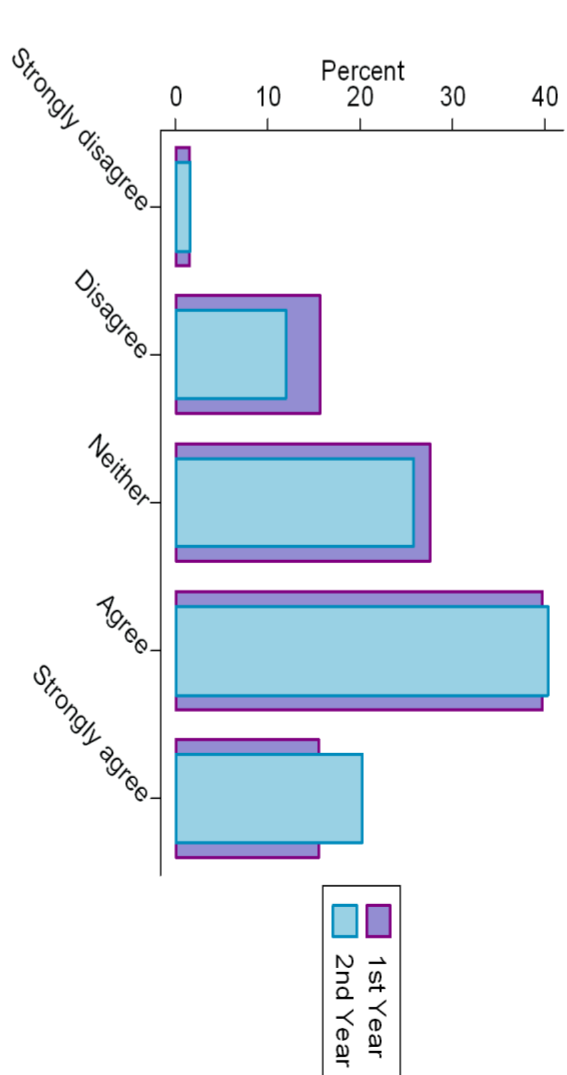

To what extent has paid work contributed to any absences from your lectures or seminars?

To what extent have you found your course less challenging than expected?

To what extent do you agree that you expected more interaction with lecturers/tutors on your course?

To what extent do you agree that you expected your course to be more relevant to the current economic situation?

